Nestled in a much-loved village pocket of Fitzroy North, this charming Victorian certainly offers more than meets the eye. Unassuming from the street, its expanded two-level floorplan, modern enhancements and generous outdoor zones reward closer inspection. Positioned in an intact row of eight terraces, the home's architecturally impressive interior highlights a fusion of the classic and the contemporary. For the former, see its hardwood floors. For the latter, see its ducted heating and split-system air-conditioning. Downstairs offers a front bedroom, sky-lit central living room with buil...
